The directors of Amber Court Management (No2) Limited declare that the company is entitled to the exemption conferred by subsection (1) of Section 249A of the Companies Act 1985 and further declare that no notice under subsection (2) of Section 249B has been deposited in relation to these accounts.

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985 and of preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at 31st March 2004 and of its profit for the financial year ended on that date, in accordance with Section 226 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

The directors rely on Sections 247 to 249 of the Companies Act 1985 as entitling them to deliver modified accounts, and they do so on the grounds that the company is entitled to the benefit of those sections as a small company.

The directors have taken advantage of the Company's Act 1985 in not having these accounts audited under Section 249a(1) (total exemption).
